

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, March 22 1704

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 23.

Vienna, March 12.

NOtwithstanding the Hopes of Peace with the Rebels of Hungary increase daily, extraordinary Diligence is used to settle sufficient Funds, and make necessary Preparations of War, in order to act vigorously against them this Campaign: And yesterday a great many Horses were sent from hence for remounting the Cavalry, and others to be employ'd in the Train of Artillery, for the Service of the Troops commanded by General Heister; also 30 Pieces of Brass Cannon are drawn out of our Arsenals, with Ammunitions proportionable, to be sent to the same Army. Mr. Stepney, the English Envoy, is still here, and 'tis suppos'd will not go from hence till he sees what Answer General Berezeni returns to the Dutch Envoy: Concerning whom we have the following Particulars, 'General Berezeni being inform'd by an Express that Monsieur Hamel Bruinx, Envoy of the States General of the United Provinces, was arriv'd at Presburg with Orders to come to him and interpose the good Offices of their High Mightinesses, in furthering the Negotiation set on foot by Prince Eugene of Savoy at Presbourg, immediately detach'd a strong Party of his Troops to meet and conduct that Minister to him; and receiv'd him at his Head Quarters with Drums beating and Colours flying. We are assur'd that Monsieur Bruinx has Orders to declare to the chief of the Malecontents, that if they do not readily concur with the Emperor's good Dispositions to accommodate things with them at this Juncture, they must not look for Favour hereafter, Measures being taken on all sides to compel them to return to their Duty. Cardinal Lamberg arriv'd here the 9th instant from Passau. The Danish Troops that are arriv'd here are order'd to march to the Leita to joyn General Heister, where that General has been reforc'd to 12000 Men Regular Troops. The Imperial Militia that drew together near Czacaturn are likewise to joyn that General, who will afterwards march directly to the Rebels and offer them Battle, unless the Accommodation be made before he has receiv'd these Reinforcements. But 'tis highly probable there will be no occasion to proceed to such Extremities; On the contrary, seeing Couriers arrive almost daily from General Berezeni, with Letters for his Imperial Majesty and for Prince Eugene of Savoy, and that those Couriers are sent back with Answers from the Court, we are in hopes to see a speedy End of these Troubles, which the Nobility of Hungary seem sincerely dispos'd to terminate while they may.

Ebenfurt, March 12. To day the Regiment of la Tour pass'd the Leita, have taken Post on the other side that River, and are throwing up Retrenchments that they may be able to maintain their Ground; they carried over with them 2 Pieces of Cannon and 3 Mortars, and will be speedily follow'd by a considerable number of Troops.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 28.

Vienna, March 15. The 12th of this Month the Baron of Medist, a Captain in the Regiment of Bagelschi, arriv'd here from Carinthia, with Advice that the Uscoques have fitted out several Barks and other Vessels at Segna to cruise upon the Enemies that infest their Coasts. They have already had the good Fortune in one Expedition to take 4 of the Enemies Tartans, after a hard Fight; the Lading of these Tartans is valued at 100000 Crowns, and their Flags will be sent to the Emperor. Prince Egon of Furstemberg, Governour of Saxony, is arriv'd here from Cracow, with a Commission from the King of Poland, the Tenor of which is kept secret. The Danish Troops continue in our Suburbs waiting for their Recruits, who are upon the March to joyn them. An Express arriv'd from the Dutch Envoy, brings Advice, that he had acquainted Count Berezeni with the Proposals he was commission'd to make to him, and that he seem'd very well satisfied with them; but that the Count not being empower'd to settle the Articles of the Treaty himself alone, was gone Post to Prince Ragotski to confer with him about them: So that tho' we are in great hopes of the good Success of this Negotiation, yet it is wholly at a stand till Count Berezeni returns back from Prince Ragotski. 'Tis reported the King of Poland has signified to the Imperial Court, that he is willing to release the Princes Constantine and James Sobieski, provided the Emperor will stand Guarantee that they shall have no hand in the Intrigues that are carrying on in Poland against him.

The Amsterdam Courant of the 29th says, in the Article from Vienna dated the 12th, that Monsieur Bruinx is return'd to Vienna.

From Tyrol, March 7. We have Advice that the French and Bavarians are drawing together near Rosenheim, with design to make a new Irruption into this Province by Kufstein, in order to attempt a 2d time to pass into Italy. But we are in no fear of them, the Mountains being all cover'd with Snow 3 foot deep, and the Militia being order'd to draw together at Rattenberg to defend the new Lines that are made there, and which the Enemies must be oblig'd to force if they would enter the Country. We have receiv'd considerable Reinforcements of Men, and a great quantity of Ammunition from the neighbouring Provinces; and our Regents have given such good Orders every where, that we shall undoubtedly be able to repulse the Enemy.

Amsterdam, March 28. Letters from Aichstat of the 27th instant tell us, that the Militia of the Upper Austria in number above 20000 Men, commanded by the Generals Gronsveld and Tramp, with some Regular Troops, after having forc'd and levell'd the Lines near Passau, have invaded Bavaria, where they ravage and ruine the Country; and that the Militia of Tyrol, 15000 Men strong, are about to make a like Irruption on their side, to prevent the Attempts of the Bavarians who have lately threaten'd Tyrol.

By Letters from Frankfort of the 23d of this Month we learn, that the Prince of Baden, who is at Achaffenburg, is very ill of the Gout; yet does not neglect to give the necessary Orders for the March of the Troops. Those of Lunenburg are ready, and wait for the last Order, as do also some Palatine Regiments, to move whither it shall be judg'd convenient. The Troops of Hesse Cassel, that are in the Service of the States General, and those of the Circle of the Upper Rhine, will within 3 or 4 days encamp near Mannheim. These Letters assure us, that the Lines of Stollhoffen are in a good State of Defence, as well as those that are thrown up near Bregents.

From the Paris Gazette, dated March 15.

Madrid, Feb. 28. The Ambassador of Savoy being order'd to retire from this City, has been conducted to Consuegra, and the Arms of the Duke of Savoy have been taken down from over the Gate of his Palace. The Duke of Berwick, after having been visited by by the Grantees and other principal Persons of the Court, was on the 23^d of this Month made a Grantee, and accordingly put on his Hat in the King's Presence, being on that Occasion accompanied by all the Grantees that were here. The same day the Baron Simeoni Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Bavaria, made his publick Entry with great Magnificence. The King's Departure for the Army continues fix'd to the 1st of next Month, the rest of the Artillery and his heavy Baggage, as also the Baggage of the Lords that accompany him, are already gone before. Such is the Zeal and Forwardness of the Noblemen of the Court to go with his Majesty, that several whole Employment or Age would have excus'd them from giving this Testimony of their Fidelity and Affection, have desir'd Leave to make the Campaign, with so much Earnestness that the King could not refuse them. The Count d'Aguilar is come hither with that Design; the Marquess d'Ayterona is arriv'd at Barcelona, and others are on the Way. The King has nominated the Duke of Bejar and the Marquess of Jamaica Son of the Duke of Veraguas, to serve near his Person as Aydes du Camp: And has conferr'd the Dignity of Councillor of State and of War on the Marquess de Canales Secretary of State, in consideration of his Services. An extraordinary Courier has brought Advice from Barcelona, that the Galleys of Spain are arriv'd there with 2000 Men from Porto Mahon, and are to return thither to fetch 2000 more. By Letters from Pamplona of the 21st we learn, that the last of the French Auxiliary Troops are arriv'd there, that 1800 Horse and 600 Foot are march'd towards Valladolid, and that a Body of 6000 have taken their way through Guipuscoa. 'Tis advis'd from Port St. Mary, that a Spy come from Lisbon has been seiz'd there, and with him was taken a Bundle of half a hundred Weight full of Manifestoes and Letters in the Name of the Archduke Charles.

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated March 27.

Madrid, Feb. 29. A Courier is dispatch'd from Court to Seville, with Orders to the Marquess de Villadarias, to go to Port St. Mary to look to the Coast on that side; and to leave the Command of a Body of Troops to the Baron de Bai, who came lately from Flanders and is made a Lieutenant General. By Order of the President of Castile, publick Prayers are made in the Churches for the Blessing of Heaven on his Majesty's Arms in the War he is going to begin against Portugal. The King will set out from hence in 3 or 4 days to go to Almaraz, and from thence to Alcantara, whence he can speedily pass into Andalusia or into the Old Castile, as he shall see occasion. They write from Biscay, that they have launch'd 2 new Ships, which are to serve as Captain and Admiral of the Fleet that is to go to New Spain; and will take the opportunity of the first fair Wind to go to Cadix.

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated March 27.

Paris, March 14. A Courier has brought Advice from Madrid, that the King of Spain did not set out from thence till the 4th instant, when he declar'd to the Grantees who accompany him, that he would not defray the Expences they should be at on this Occasion: The Queen went with him half a day's Journey and then return'd to Madrid; the Duke of Berwick is gone with him, the Abbot d'Etrees our Ambassador accommodated him with his own Coach for this Journey, and 'tis said he will be made Captain General of his Catholick Majesty's Forces: Some Advices say, his said Majesty has already order'd him a Pension of 1500 Pistoles a Month during the Campaign.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 25.

Paris, March 14. An Express from Madrid has brought Advice, that King Philip V. arriv'd the 6th instant at Seville, whence he was to set out on the 10th to put himself at the Head of his Army, in order to march the 15th and pass the Guadina the 18th or 20th to enter upon Action. There are Letters from Bayonne, which confirm the Insurrection in the Asturias, and add, that those Malecontents do very much infect the great Roads that lead from France to Spain.

London, March 22. Yesterday Stocks were as follows, Bank 134. Shares 30 & 3 qrs. Old Comp. 133 & 3 qrs. New Comp. 235 & a half. Million Bank 91. Sword Blades 90 & 1 qr. African 21 & 1 qr. Army Debentures 83 & 1 qr.

At the Desire of several Persons of Quality.

For the Benefit of Mrs. Mayers.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, tomorrow being Thursday the 23^d of March, will be presented a Comedy call'd, The Pilgrim. With Singing by Mr. Leveridge and Mrs. Lindsey, particularly a Dialogue which was originally perform'd by them in the Opera of The Island Princess. And several Entertainments of Dancing by Monsieur du Ruel and Mrs. Mayers. With a Masque set to Musick by the Famous Mr. Henry Purcell.

At the Desire of several Persons of Quality.

AT the New Theatre in Little-Lincolns-Inn-Fields, tomorrow being Thursday the 23^d of March, will be presented a reviv'd Comedy call'd, Sir Solomon Single. (As it was Acted before Her Majesty at St. James's.) The part of Betty to be perform'd by Miss Mountfort. With several Entertainments of Dancing by Mr. Finbank and his Scholar, Mr. Godwin, Mrs. Clark, Miss Evans and others. And Singing by Mrs. Hodgson.

These are to give notice, that whereas a Note for 10*l.* 5*s.* dated October 12. 1703. payable to Mr. Alex. Carpenter or Bearer in February next after date, by Mr. Wise and Prudum at the Queens-Head on Ludgate-Hill Mercers, and by them paid the 1st of this March to an unknown Person, being indors'd on the back side Peter Hawley. He who receiv'd the said Money, or any one that can so inform Mr. Geo. Wise of the Person that did receive it, as that the Note may be trac'd back to Mr. Carpenter aforesaid, shall have 10*l.* Reward and be free from all manner of Damage and Charges, the want of this Information causing a great Dispute between some Persons concerned in the Note.

THE late Mrs. Harrison's fine India Goods and Ware continues to be sold at her late Dwelling House in Southampton-street near the Square this and the following days, beginning at 3 in the Afternoon, and continues daily until all be sold. Catalogues may be had at the place of Sale.

THIS present Wednesday and tomorrow, being the 22^d and 23^d instant, will continue the Sale of the Catalogue of Books, in Greek, Latin, &c. and particularly the Books of Architecture, Perspective, Fortification and Machines, in Folio, at Tom's Coffee house adjoining to Ludgate, and will continue daily till all be Sold. To begin exactly at 4 a clock in the Afternoon. Catalogues to be had at the place of Sale.

AT Woodford Town in Essex right against the White Hart near the Church, are two Teniments to be Lett fit for private Families, they stand very pleasantly not long built, with Gardens to them, Stable and Hay-loft, the Water coming in through Pipes without pumping, and several other conveniencies. Enquire at the House.

A Draught of the new Invention no way 13 Inches, all bright cast Iron.

WHEREAS the Author of the new Invention for Chocolate, hath given a general Satisfaction in making the finest and cleanliest in the World with that pleasure, that he can afford it 12*d.* a pound cheaper than the Drugster or any in London, if made from sound Nuts, all Spanish Nut, or all Martineco Nut, either rich or plain, or both sorts with Sugar rich or plain, known by the Rates often publish'd in the Daily Courant. The Author is an English-man, notwithstanding there is no few or others will pretend to make Chocolate their loathsome way upon a Stone so fine or cleanly. The Invention is to be seen, the working part is a Secret. The Chocolate is no where to be sold but by the Author Mr. Robert Inwood in Strapson's-court in White-Friers the third Door behind the Green Dragon Tavern in Fleet-street, there is a Coach-way at the Golden Lyon a Drugsters. Those that take but a pound shall have a Dish liquid gratis, or Allowance by the Douzen.